

District Director Candidate Shawn Gold		Shawn Gold is your current Program Quality Director. During his 7 years with Toastmasters he officially served as club VPPR and President, as well as Area and Division Governor. He has also competed at the District level in Table Topics, Evaluation and International Speech contests. Using his strong training background and love of Toastmasters he has led several training sessions throughout the District. Shawn is committed to Toastmasters learning, having completed his second DTM, raising the bar with club officer training in 2018 and overseeing the effective rollout of Pathways in District 21. Shawn loves family, photography and travel.
Program Quality Director candidate Michael Bown		Michael recognizes the best reward in life is serving others. His professional experience has taken him from being a teacher to a leader in the finance industry. In Toastmasters he has served in many club roles as well as district roles including Select Distinguished Division Director and Club Growth Director 2016-2017. Michael completed the Distinguished Toastmaster award twice in 3.5 years and is now diving into the Pathways program with excitement. If elected Michael plans to continue building on the great things District 21 already does to embrace continuous improvement. To learn more please visit MichaelBown4PQD.win or Facebook.com/MichaelBown4PQD
Program Quality Director candidate Gene Vickers		Gene Vickers would be proud to serve our District 21 leadership team again... a former District 21... "Rookie of the Year" ... "Toastmaster of the Year" ... President's Distinguished Area Governor... President's Distinguished Division Governor... recipient of both International Marketing and International Education and Training Excellence Awards. Gene is the creator of the Toastmasters Core Values Coin and creator of the Change Your Colors Spreadsheet which Mike Carr automated and it is now used by Districts throughout the world helping Clubs, Areas, Divisions and District monitor success. His Leadership Style... empowering others. Vote for Gene Vickers as Program Quality Director.

Club Growth Director Candidate Jan Ireland		Jan joined Toastmasters to build confidence and find her voice. A bonus was the opportunity to demonstrate her aptitude as a servant leader. She forms lasting relationships through mutual respect, collaboration, desire to make a positive difference and having fun in the process. She was 2010-11 Select Distinguished Area Governor and 2011-12 Presidents' Distinguished Division Governor, 2012-13 District Chief Judge, plus conference Chair/Mentor in 2015 and 2017. She has attended numerous district conferences and two international conventions. These have prepared her for the club growth director position, opening doors to help others find their voice and the leader inside THEM.
Division Director A Candidate Mike Zhong		Being a Toastmaster for four years, Mike (CC, ALB) has served as club president (President's Distinguished that year) and area director assistant, traveled across the world and witnessed how thriving Toastmasters world is outside D21. He also organized two demo meetings for potential clubs in Finland and Vietnam, to spread the word of Toastmasters. Awarded "Rookie of the year" in 2016 and coming at the top 2 in District Humorous Speech Contest in 2017, Mike is running for Division A Director in the coming year. Mike is aiming at creating a strong Division A by building trust among members and implementing effective systems that ensure the long-term success of Division A
Division Director B Candidate David Aujla		David has been a Toastmaster for two years becoming President of Oak Bay Toastmasters in the first year and obtained his ACB, ALB and will have his ACS by April. He is also a member of Master Motivators. He attended universities in BC and Ontario with degrees in Biochemistry, Philosophy and Law, graduating from Western Law school in 1974 and practises Canadian immigration law. As member of the Canadian Bar Association and Law Society of British Columbia, he makes regular presentations on Immigration issues. David is married to Sheila and they have two sons who live in New York City.

Division Director C Candidate Sharon Marshall		Sharon Marshall joined Toastmasters in Nov 2008 and has held the club officer positions of VPPR, President, and VPE. She has also held the position of Area Director and is currently District 21 Administration Manager, an Approved Club Officer Trainer, and Pathways Guide. Sharon believes that having knowledge is power, however, the real power lies in the execution. She also believes in learning by doing and strives for excellence in all that she does. Sharon is a natural leader and leads by example. “If you’re not having fun, you’re not doing it right!”
Division Director E	No Candidate	This could be you! Please contact Mike at mrdesign@shaw.ca
Division Director F Candidate Annie Peng		Vote for Annie Peng, Candidate for Division F Director Annie is a bubbly team player with strong core values, and a highly-committed, passionate Toastmaster with diverse leadership experience. In just five years with Toastmasters, she’s served as Club President, VP Education, VP Membership, and Secretary...and she took on the huge challenge of co-chairing the D21 Spring 2017 Conference, with outstanding results. Moving forward, she’s excited about new opportunities and fresh possibilities through the Pathways Program. Her vision is to provide high quality service and support to enhance learning, and make the Division F Toastmaster experience...Fun, Focused, and Fantastic!
Division Director G Candidate Carolyn Bray		Carolyn started her Toastmaster journey in Ontario in November 2005. She belonged to Unionville Toastmasters for 10 years and in 2014 she achieved her DTM. In 2015 she moved to B.C. and immediately joined Cloverdale Toastmasters and has since also joined Speakers Advantage and Funny Bone Toastmasters. For the past year Carolyn has been Area 62 Director and was previously an Area Governor in Ontario. This year she has also been President of two of her clubs - Cloverdale and Speakers Advantage. She is looking forward to the Division G Director’s role for 2018/19 and hopes that she can contribute to making Division G and District 21 the best it can be.

Division Director K Candidate Caroline Ivey		Caroline Ivey has enjoyed a successful 35-year career in community programming and non-profit development. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Recreation and Business and completed post-graduate work in financial management and strategic planning. Caroline originally joined Toastmasters to build confidence and strengthen her skills in public speaking but quickly raised her hand when the call was made for someone to step into a club executive role. She feels that by contributing her leadership skills to Toastmasters she is giving back to an organization that has provided her with so many opportunities to learn and grow.
Division Director L	No Candidate	This could be you! Please contact Mike at mrdesign@shaw.ca